

Romeo and Juliet Graphic Novel Assignment

Instructions

1. Choose a scene from Romeo and Juliet – First come, first served!
2. Read the scene carefully and highlight important dialogue and key events.
3. Plan your graphic novel pages by sketching out the panels and deciding on the layout.
4. Create a rough draft of your graphic novel, including the dialogue from the original text.
5. Submit your rough draft for peer editing.

6. Peer review - time to review other work!

7. Revise and make any necessary changes to your rough draft.
8. Add color to your final graphic novel using colored pencils or markers.
9. Review your graphic novel to ensure it accurately represents the scene and includes the required dialogue.
10. Submit your completed work to your teacher.

***All images must be original – your own creations!***

Marking Criteria

Criteria	Points
Dialogue inclusion	/5
- Dialogue from the original text is accurately included in the comic strip
Comic strip layout	/5
- Panels are organized logically and effectively convey the events of the scene
Artistic representation	/10
- Characters and settings are drawn with detail and accuracy
- Colors are used effectively to enhance the comic strip
Creativity and effort	/10
- Shows originality and creativity in the adaptation of the scene
- Demonstrates effort and attention to detail in the overall presentation
Total Points:	/30