Answers

1. False (Athena was born from Zeus alone, springing from his head fully grown and armored.)
2. True (In Greek mythology, one of Apollo's tasks was to drive his chariot across the sky to move the Sun.)
3. False (Ares was actually one of the least favored gods among both deities and mortals due to his aggressive and warlike disposition.)
4. False (Artemis was indeed the twin sister of Apollo but she was associated with the moon, while Apollo was associated with the sun.)
5. False (The curse caused the seasons to change, not an eternal winter; winter occurred annually when Persephone was in the underworld.)
6. True (Hephaestus was the craftsman of the gods, creating their weapons and armor.)
7. True (Hera was known for her jealous and vengeful nature towards Zeus's infidelities.)
8. False (While Hermes was known for moving between worlds, other gods, including Dionysus and Hades, could also traverse different realms.)
9. False (Poseidon was known for his difficult, quarrelsome personality and his disputes with other gods.)
10. True (Zeus was indeed known for punishing those who lied or broke oaths.)
