

Views in Maycomb

In many ways, Atticus fits in perfectly in Maycomb, but in other ways he does not. Atticus often disagrees with the popular views in Maycomb. Mrs. Dubose and Aunt Alexandra represent the popular points of view regarding gender, race, and family history.

Create a chart of the unwritten rules of Maycomb.

Unwritten rules of Maycomb (Race, gender, family lineage, etc...)	Textual Evidence (paraphrase or quote)	Atticus' Point of View

Writing: What is the difference between what the town teaches Jem and Scout and what their father teaches them? How do the kids try to deal with the differing points of view?