

Chapter 5 Letter from Ralph

Instructions for Students

Objective: Write a 300-word letter as if you are Ralph, addressing his parents, explaining the events that took place in Chapter 5 of Lord of the Flies.

Guidelines:

Understand Ralph's Perspective: Before writing, read Chapter 5 and consider Ralph's emotions and experiences.

Introduction: Start the letter by appropriately greeting your parents, letting them know that you are alive, and your current situation on the island.

Body of the Letter:

- Describe the Setting: Mention the island and the circumstances that led to your current situation.
- Key Events: Detail the significant events of Chapter 5, focusing on Ralph's leadership challenges, the fear among the boys, and the assembly he calls.
- Personal Feelings: Express Ralph's thoughts and feelings about the events and his role as a leader.
- Interactions with Other Characters: Include how Ralph interacts with characters like Piggy, Jack, and Simon.

Conclusion: Conclude by summarizing Ralph's hopes or fears for the future on the island.

Writing Style: Write in the first person, maintaining the voice and tone of a young boy stranded on an island.

Word Count: Ensure your letter is around 300 words.

Proofread: Check for spelling, grammar, and adherence to the character's voice.
