

Finding Inspiration in Adversity: Research Project

Objective: To explore the lives of inspiring individuals who have overcome significant challenges and to learn from their journeys.

Instructions

Choose an Inspiring Figure: Select a person who has faced and overcome significant challenges. This could be a historical figure, a contemporary public figure, or someone from your community.

Research: Gather information about your chosen figure, focusing on:

- The challenges they faced.
- How they overcame these challenges.
- The impact of their journey on themselves and others.

Presentation Format: Present your findings in a creative format of your choice.

This could be a:

- Written essay
- Oral presentation
- Video documentary
- Artistic representation (e.g., a painting, sculpture, or collage)

Content: Your presentation should include:

- An introduction to your chosen figure.
- A detailed account of the challenges they faced.
- A description of how they overcame these challenges.
- A conclusion highlighting what can be learned from their journey.

Rubric

Student Name: _____

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Needs Improvement
Research Depth	Comprehensive and detailed research.	Good research with some depth.	Basic research, covers main points.	Limited research, lacks depth.
Content Accuracy	All information is accurate and well-supported.	Mostly accurate information with minor errors.	Generally accurate with some inaccuracies.	Several inaccuracies and unsupported claims.
Presentation Quality	Highly creative and engaging presentation.	Creative and engaging presentation.	Adequate presentation, somewhat engaging.	Lacks creativity and engagement.
Clarity and Organization	Exceptionally clear and well-organized.	Clear and well-organized.	Mostly clear and organized.	Unclear and poorly organized.

Comments: